

The Vermont Builders and Remodelers Association

During the COVID-19 pandemic, VBRA has remained in the crucial role of being the voice for the building industry in Vermont, communicating critical information as it happens and advocating for the building trades. Your membership strengthens the Association and brings significant benefits.

Officers

President:

Jim Bradley

Hayward Design Build

Past President & Acting E.D:

Denis Bourbeau

Bourbeau Custom Homes

VP of Education:

Lew Castle

Page & Campbell

Remodelers Council Chair:

Ed Levite

Union Bank

VP of Associates:

Elise Polli

Polli Properties

VP of Finance:

Todd Warren

Inspired Closets Vermont

Presidential Appointee:

Chris West

Eco Houses of VT LLC

Additional Board Members:

Norman LeBoeuf

LeBoeuf Construction

Andy Leach

Leach Construction

Rob Shea

Rob Shea Carpentry

Patrick O'Brien

SD Ireland

Kemener Whalen

BlackRock Construction

Griffin Allen

Peregrine Design Build

Michael Languasco

Peoples United Bank

Ryan Heaslip

Acadia Insurance

Mark Rosalbo

NFP Property and Casualty Inc.

Two-for-one

Your active membership with VBRA automatically includes membership in the National Association of Home Builders. NAHB membership entitles you to local and national discounts on vehicles, shipping, computers, car rentals, office supplies, and more.

Powerful Advocacy

In Vermont, the VBRA lobbying team keeps members well informed with prompt regulatory and legislative alerts. VBRA members are at the table when it counts. NAHB has the grassroots strength of over 235,000 members to defeat excessive regulations and defend affordable housing initiatives.

Nationally Recognized Educational Programs

NAHB offers hundreds of educational programs in a variety of formats, including a number of designation programs. In Vermont, VBRA members take advantage of professional development programs that enable them to keep up to date on local and state codes, building trends, and best business practices.

Critical News & Information

VBRA uses a variety of ways to keep members connected and informed, including publications, e-newsletters, exclusive website content, news bulletins, and e-mail alerts. During the COVID-19 pandemic VBRA has been the source of up to the minute information for Vermont's building trades industry.

Transactions Between Members

VBRA members know and trust one another, resulting in millions of dollars of business transacted between loyal builders and suppliers.

Invaluable Networking Opportunities

VBRA works hard to provide local networking opportunities, events and special interest councils to promote members' services and products. The Annual VBRA Gold Tournament, Better Home Awards, Mixers and other opportunities promote your business through sponsorships, advertising, and outreach.

Business Promotion

Active social media with Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, our website, newsletters and alerts that elevate your businesses profile and keep you in touch with fellow builders.

Acadia Risk Management Insurance Program

Acadia offers a preferred insurance program specifically designed for builders and remodelers of residential property. VBRA members can access the Northern New England Home Builders dividend program, which has returned over $2.3 million in dividends to eligible participants.

Community Engagement Recognition

VBRA members are very active in their communities. Be a part of VBRA outreach efforts through the Brendon Cousino Scholarship Fund, Holiday Family, and the Rebuilding Together Projects.

NAHB Vehicle Discounts

Save $500 on Dodge / Jeep, $500-$1000 on GM / Chevy, and $2000-$7400 on Nissan when purchased from your local dealer through a member business!

VBRA - PO Box 440 St. Albans Bay, VT 05481

802.876.6200 - info@homebuildersvt.com